In connection with your application for a home loan, the lender must disclose to you the score that a consumer reporting agency distributed to users and the lender used in connection with your home loan, and the key factors affecting your credit scores. The credit score is a computer generated summary calculated at the time of the request and based on information that a consumer reporting agency or lender has on file. The scores are based on data about your credit history and payment patterns. Credit scores are important because they are used to assist the lender in determining whether you will obtain a loan. They may also be used to determine what interest rate you may be offered on the mortgage. Credit scores can change over time, depending on your conduct, how your credit history and payment patterns change, and how credit scoring technologies change. Because the score is based on information in your credit history, it is very important that you review the credit-related information that is being furnished to make sure it is accurate. Credit records may vary from one company to another. If you have questions about your credit score or the credit information that is furnished to you, contact the consumer reporting agency at the address and telephone number provided with this notice, or contact the lender, if the lender developed or generated the credit score. The consumer reporting agency plays no part in the decision to take any action on the loan application and is unable to provide you with specific reasons for the decision on a loan application. If you have questions concerning the terms of the loan, contact the lender.

Your acknowledgment below signifies that this written notice was provided to you.

The Mortgage Loan will be secured by a mortgage at the following address: _____ (the "Property").

We are licensed as a "Mortgage Broker" under the law.

NATURE OF RELATIONSHIP. In connection with this mortgage loan we are acting as an independent contractor and not as your agent. We will enter into separate independent contractor agreements with various lenders. While we seek to assist you in meeting your financial needs, we do not distribute the products of all lenders or investors in the market and cannot guarantee the lowest price or best terms available.

By Signing Below, you

Mortgage Broker Fee Disclosure

You have applied to us -- a mortgage broker -- for a residential mortgage loan. We will submit your application for a residential mortgage loan to a participating lender with which we, from time to time, contract upon such terms and conditions as you may request or a lender may require. The lenders have asked that this form be furnished to you to clarify the role of mortgage brokers. This form supplements other disclosures or agreements required by law that you should receive from us concerning your application.

SECTION 1. NATURE OF RELATIONSHIP. In connection with this mortgage loan:

- * We may be acting as an independent contractor and not as your agent. If you are unsure of the nature of your relationship, please ask us for clarification.
- * We have separate independent contractor agreements with various lenders.
- * While we seek to assist you in meeting your financial needs, we do not distribute the products of all lenders or investors in the market and cannot guarantee the lowest price or best terms available in the market.

SECTION 2. THE BROKER'S COMPENSATION. The lenders whose loan products are distributed by us generally provide their loan products to us at a wholesale rate.

- * The retail price we offer you --- your interest rate, total points and fees --- will include our compensation.
- * In some cases, we may be paid all of our compensation by either you or the lender.
- * Alternatively, we may be paid a portion of our compensation by both you and the lender. For example, in some cases, if you would rather pay a lower interest rate, you may pay higher up-front points and fees
- * Also, in some cases, if you would rather pay less up-front, you may wish to have some or all of our fees paid directly by the lender, which will result in a higher interest rate and higher monthly loan payments than you would otherwise be required to pay.
- * We also may be paid by the lender based on (i) the value of the Mortgage Loan or related servicing rights in the market place or (ii) other services, goods or facilities performed or provided by us to the lender.

You may work with us to select the method in which we receive our compensation depending on your financial needs, subject to the lender's loan program requirements and credit underwriting guidelines.

The amount of fees and charges that you pay in connection with your loan will be estimated on your Good Faith Estimate. The final amounts will be disclosed on your HUD-1 or HUD-1A Settlement Statement.

By signing below, applicant(s) acknowledge receipt of a copy of this signed Agreement.

SERVICING DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

NOTICE TO FIRST LIEN MORTGAGE LOAN APPLICANTS: THE RIGHT TO COLLECT YOUR MORTGAGE LOAN PAYMENTS MAY BE TRANSFERRED. FEDERAL LAW GIVES YOU CERTAIN RELATED RIGHTS. IF YOUR LOAN IS MADE, SAVE THIS STATEMENT WITH YOUR LOAN DOCUMENTS. SIGN THE ACKNOWLEDGMENT AT THE END OF THIS STATEMENT ONLY IF YOU UNDERSTAND ITS CONTENTS.

Because you are applying for a mortgage loan covered by the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA) (12 U.S.C. Section 2601 et seq.) you have certain rights under that Federal law.

This statement tells you about those rights. It also tells you what the chances are that the servicing for this loan may be transferred to a different loan servicer. "Servicing" refers to collecting your principal, interest and escrow account payments, if any. If your loan servicer changes, there are certain procedures that must be followed. This statement generally explains those procedures.

Transfer Practices And Requirements

If the servicing of your loan is assigned, sold, or transferred to a new servicer, you must be given written notice of that transfer. The present loan servicer must send you notice in writing of the assignment, sale or transfer of the servicing not less than 15 days before the effective date of the transfer. The new loan servicer must also send you notice within 15 days after the effective date of the transfer. The present servicer and the new servicer may combine this information in one notice, so long as the notice is sent to you 15 days before the effective date of transfer. The 15 day period is not applicable if a notice of prospective transfer is provided to you at settlement. The law allows a delay in the time (not more than 30 days after a transfer) for servicers to notify you, upon the occurrence of certain business emergencies.

Notices must contain certain information. They must contain the effective date of the transfer of the servicing of your loan to the new servicer, and the name, address, and toll-free or collect call telephone number of the new servicer, and toll-free or collect call telephone numbers of a person or department for both your present servicer and your new servicer to answer your questions. During the 60-day period following the effective date of the transfer of the loan servicing, a loan payment received by your old servicer before its due date may not be treated by the new loan servicer as late, and a late fee may not be imposed on you.

Complaint Resolution

Section 6 of RESPA (12 U.S.C. Section 2605) gives you certain consumer rights, whether or not your loan servicing is transferred.

If you send a "qualified written request" to your servicer, your servicer must provide you with a written acknowledgment within 20 Business Days of receipt of your request. (A "qualified written request" is a written correspondence, other than a notice on a payment coupon or other payment medium supplied by the servicer, which includes your name and account number, and the information regarding your request). Not later than 60 Business Days after receiving your request, your servicer must make any appropriate corrections to your account, or must provide you with a written clarification regarding any dispute. During this 60 Business Day period, your servicer may not provide information to a consumer reporting agency concerning any overdue payment related to such period or qualified written request.

A Business Day is any day in which the offices of the business entity are open to the public for carrying on substantially all of its business functions.

Damages and Costs

Section 6 of RESPA also provides for damages and costs for individuals or classes of individuals in circumstances where servicers are shown to have violated the requirements of that Section.

Servicing Transfer Estimates

1. The following is the best estimate of what will happen to the servicing of your mortgage loan:

 X

2. For all the first lien mortgage loans that we make in the 12 month period after your mortgage loan is funded, we estimate that the percentage of mortgage loans for which we will transfer servicing is between:

 [0 to 25%] or [NONE] 26 to 50% 51 to 75% [76 TO 100%] or [ALL]

This estimate does does not include assignments, sales or transfers to affiliates or subsidiaries. This is only our best estimate and it is not binding. Business conditions or other circumstances may affect our future transferring decisions.

3. X This is our record of transferring the servicing of first lien mortgage loans we have made in the past.
